

KEY STAFF RESUMES

STEPHEN W. CONRAD, P.E.

Director of Mechanical Engineering

Steve was a previous Owner and Vice President of Bradford Conrad Crow Engineering (now Crow Engineering). He has transitioned into Crow as the Director of Mechanical Engineering and is the engineer-in-charge of all wood product and other material-handling projects.

As a senior Mechanical Engineer, Steve provides the following:

- Operations and Systems Analysis
- Feasibility Studies and Facility Planning
- Project Engineering
- Project Management
- Process Engineering
- Plant Layout and Cost Estimations
- Machinery Design Supervision
- Mechanical Engineering Services

Fields of Experience

- Log Processing Facilities
- Chip Manufacturing and Handling Facilities
- Ship-Loading and Barge-Unloading Facilities
- Finger-Jointing and Remanufacturing Facilities
- Sawmills and Studmills
- Domestic and Export Veneer and Plywood Plants
- Lumber Kilns
- Material Handling for Numerous Industries
- Machine and Equipment Design

Years of Experience

30

Education

University of Washington
Bachelor of Science
Mechanical Engineering

Pacific Lutheran University
Bachelor of Science
Engineering Science

Employment History

Bradford Conrad Crow Engineering,
Vice President, Senior Mechanical
Engineer
1992 - 2016

Crow Engineering, Co.
Vice President - Operations
1989 - 1992